

VOLUNTEER AND GOLD PASS PROMO CODE BOOKING INSTRUCTIONS

PLEASE NOTE: These instructions are for the booking of vehicle entry and camping ONLY. To receive the discount for other eligible park activities please contact the booking centre directly and provide your unique code.

- Eligible volunteers may book one (1) complimentary campsite for up to five days, per booking.
- The eligible volunteer must be present at the booked campsite / when free vehicle entry is claimed.
- If you need to cancel a booking, please do so as soon as practical so that the campsite can be made available for another user.
- One of the most important things you can do in a national park is to leave the area exactly how you found it when you arrived. This means leaving no trace and taking out what you bring in. The unique code number and gold pass is not transferable.

Booking a campsite online

1. Visit www.parks.sa.gov.au.
 - a. Use the 'Find a Park' button on the home screen, search by park name, then select 'Book a Stay' or 'Things to Book' followed by 'Book a Stay'
2. You will see a list of campground and accommodation options for that park. Find your campground and select 'Check availability'.

Big Yangie Bay

Located 2km along the 4WD Coffin track, the camping area is also popular for picnicking. Big Yangie Bay is a shallow, protected inlet great for kayaks and paddle boards. The campground offers unallocated and unpowered camping for 7 vehicles. Access 4WD only, suitable for tents and off-road camper trailers. No facilities, nearest are at Yangie Bay (approx 2km). Campfires permitted, fire pits not provided (seasonal fire restrictions and conditions apply). Swimming, beach fishing, birdwatching, 4WDing and kayaking.
